

Monte Vista High School Awards at the 55th Annual Colorado Science and Engineering Fair

Ben Armstrong - "The Uptake of Endocrine Disrupting Chemicals"

Senior Division Best Individual Project - 2nd Place (will compete at the 2010 International Science and Engineering Fair in San Jose, California as a CSEF winner, expense paid trip)

Senior Division Environmental Sciences - 1st place

American Water Works Association Rocky Mountain Section & Rocky Mountain Water Environment Association - $400 award

Propst Moving Science Forward Scholarship - $3,000

Josh Garcia – "Are You Confined To A Life With Musical Disabilities?"

Senior Division Behavioral & Social Sciences – 2nd place

University of Northern Colorado MAST Institute Award - $50

Adams State Scholarship- ~$2,000

Wylie Keller – "Wool as a Potting Media"

Senior Division Plant Sciences – 2nd place

Colorado Foundation for Agriculture- Agriculture in the Classroom Award - $50

CSU Department of Horticulture & Landscape Architecture Award - $100

Sarah Oden – "Human Perception: A Study on Implicit Prejudice"

Senior Division Behavioral & Social Sciences – Honorable Mention

American Psychological Association Award

Johanna Phillips – "Infested Forests and Evapotranspiration II: Developing a Watershed Model, Phase I"

Senior Division Earth & Space Sciences – 1st

American Meteorological Society, Denver/Boulder Chapter Award - $50

Colorado Scientific Society Award - $75

Adams State Scholarship- ~$2,000